ByronFest Quilt Show 2015 Entry Instructions and Show Details

Welcome to the Byron Museum's 28th annual quilt show, presented by ByronFest 2015. Thank you for entering a quilt in this year's display. The Byron Museum is expanding and needs more quilts than ever before. Please consider getting involved by: entering an antique quilt from your collection or volunteer to help hang quilts on July 8th, or attend the free program offered on July 10th at 2:00.

Pick Up

Sunday, July 12
2:00-4:00 PM
Unless otherwise noted during registration.

For each entry:

- Complete one "Quilt Details" questionnaire per item at time of drop off.
- For each JUDGED item, include the $5 fee. (No fee for "Just for Show" items)
- Be sure to get a receipt and/or claim check at time of drop off.
- Note your preferred pick up time if Sunday, July 12 2-4 pm will not suit you.

Every quilt has a story:

- What would you like the judge or viewers to know about your entry?
- What was your inspiration? Is this your first quilt?
- Feel free to use a separate piece of paper to be displayed with your entry.

Just a Suggestion:

- Please consider attaching a rod pocket (at least 4") to the "top" edge of your piece.
- Take color photos of your piece showing the pattern, scale and colors.
- Sew a label onto one corner of your quilt with name, phone number and year of completion.

Judging and Awards:

- This show will be judged and ribbons awarded on Thursday, July 9.
- Byron Museum District and the quilt show committee reserves the right to change the category of a quilt and to not give awards in categories with limited entries.
- Cash prizes are awarded for first place in ten categories.
- Ribbons are awarded to first, second and third place in ten categories.
- All persons that register an item will receive a certificate of participation.
